THE CANNED FISH INDUSTRY IN 1922

The Bureau of Fisheries, Department of Commerce, has published its annual statistical review of the canned fish pack of 1922. In every instance except for shrimp and crabs, a material increase over the previous year is noted. These two items fell off quite materially. Condensed figures of the salmon pack are as follows:

CANNED SALMON
	Cases	Value
Washington	441,667	$4,823,074
Oregon	279,748	3,614,140
California	11,831	196,310
Alaska	4,501,652	29,787,193
Total.....	5,234,898	$38,420,197

A comparison of all canned fishery products may be gained from the figures of the pack for each year.
